Week 19,

We've had a busy week this week with lots of visiting parents for various events. Firstly, today we were delighted to welcome in a LOT of Year 3 parents to watch their children in the annual Year 3 assembly. It was all about the Stone Age we all learnt a huge number of facts about the period and I hope that Brian May doesn't want royalties for us borrowing his song! Well done to all of the children in Year 3, you performed brilliantly, especially those who were only given extra words today as someone was off sick.

We also welcomed in the Year 4 parents on Tuesday and Thursday for their Ocean Maths sessions which were well attended in both classes. All of the children were engaged in the activities and we thank the parents for their enthusiastic participation. Next week we have further Ocean Maths sessions; Tuesday 3rd February is Shakespeare's session and on Thursday 5th February is Dicken's. We hope to see many of you there then.

We have heard that the alleyway between Holtwhites Hill and Trinity Street will be closed from 9th February until further notice for building work, please give yourself enough time to walk the long way round and warn any Y6 children of the changes.

Dates for the whole year have been on the School Website since the summer last year – if you want to link your phone so that everything shows up in your calendar, please use this link and follow the instructions.

Next week is National Child Mental Health week where some of our learning will be on the well-being of our children and young people here at school. Rosanna (Speak Up Counsellor) will be visiting every class and our PSHE (Personal, Social, Health Education) sessions this week will be focused on mindfulness.

This week we were invited to a very exclusive event at Barclay's in Enfield Town (we were the only school), a very small group of children were able to go to see the Barclays Premier League Trophy and the Women's Super League Trophy, we hope that this special opportunity will stay with the children for life. Thank you to Emer King who organised this and lots of other opportunities for us to work with Barclay's.

A couple of dates for your diary:

- 7th February FOCS Family Games
- 6th February EYFS Book Looks (Nursery 11.15am Reception 2.45pm)
- 11th February Happy Bag Day
- 11th February Art Gallery (date change to give us more time to set up)
- 13th February Inset Day
- 16th – 20th February Half Term

Wishing you all a wonderful weekend; at last January is finished!!! We'll see you on Monday!

Stronger Together,

Miss Scull
