Dear Parent/Carer,

Mrs. Harrison Update

I hope that you enjoyed the Nativity plays this week, I am sure that the eagle eyed amongst you spotted the changes in Mrs. Harrison and I am delighted to inform you that she is having a baby.

The children have not noticed yet but she has been getting some funny looks from some of them!

She is due to start her maternity leave near the beginning of February, I know that when the time comes, she will miss all of the children and I hope you will join me in wishing her well with her new bundle of joy.

Mrs. Liversidge (a very experienced member of staff) has been training to complete her teaching qualification, and in January she will be spending 4 weeks at an alternative school (part of the assessment process), she will return before Mrs. Harrison leaves (hopefully if things go to plan).

To cover the time that Mrs. Liversidge is training and to support the class generally Mrs. Lewis will be returning to Chase Side to teach the class on a Wednesday / Thursday / Friday from the middle of January. When it comes time for Mrs. Harrison to go on maternity leave, Mrs. Liversidge will teach the class on Monday / Tuesday with Mrs. Lewis continuing to work with the class and teach on Wednesday / Thursday / Friday.

I feel that this will be a good fit for the children as Mrs. Lewis is an established member of staff with us and she knows all of our systems and routines.

If you would like to discuss this or any other matter, please contact me via the School Office.

Stronger Together
