Friday December 6th 2024

Week 13,

We have managed to hold off the Christmas chaos for another week, but next week it will be overwhelming us. All of our Christmas lunch orders have now been completed and we are counting down to the big days.

Thank you to everyone who came to the Nursery and Reception 'Book Looks' the children love to share all of the hard work that they have been doing, I am sure that you enjoyed it too. It was lovely to see some of you at the Christmas Coffee Morning today, with our special guest speaker from one of the Enfield Family Hubs. We are hoping to make these more of a regular event in the new year.

On Monday the post box will be officially opened for one week only (by the house points), with the school council children being our post officers for the week. Please remember that the envelope needs the child's name and class on it.

As I said next week is going to be a busy one, Year 1 and 2 have their Nativity to look forward to, tickets to the two performances went out this week, please don't lose them. Then on Friday we have Year 5 and 6 performing at a Carol Service at Christ Church, we look forward to you joining us there for a prompt start at 2.30pm (all children will then return to school to be dismissed).

Next week is the last week of clubs after school, a new list will be posted on the website a message will be sent out for you to sign up to clubs that will be offered in the Spring Term before the end of the term.

Please keep an eye on the Countdown Calendar that has been emailed to you and is on the gates.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend; enjoy whatever plans you have as we approach the end of what has been a very busy term here at Chase Side.

Stronger Together,

Miss Scull
